Dear Colleague at EducationUSA ,

We are delighted to have the opportunity to work with you towards our shared objectives of enrolling qualified international students at the University of Mississippi - affectionately known as “Ole Miss”.

Our International Handbook for EducationUSA provides an overview of all aspects of our University and points you to the information pertinent to international students. This handbook will be regularly updated so you have the most up-to-date information at your fingertips. We always welcome your input so we may be able to help you help us – as partners.

Established in 1848, the University of Mississippi is the oldest and leading public university in the state of Mississippi. The University comprises 15 academic divisions and 22,000 students. Located on its main campus in Oxford are the College of Liberal Arts; the schools of Accountancy, Applied Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Engineering, Journalism and New Media, Pharmacy and Law; and the Graduate School. The University offers more than 200 academic degree programs and its research enterprise is renowned internationally.

The University of Mississippi is proud to be affiliated with EducationUSA. As a founding institution of the American International Recruitment Council (AIRC), the University's Office of International Programs also partners with agencies which have earned full AIRC certification status. We expect that our partners will work in accordance with American International Recruitment Council (AIRC) standards to promote and publicize the University and its programs to qualified international students to encourage their application and enrollment. A listing of our agent partners is publicly available at our website.

Pursuant to the University creed, the Office of International Programs voluntarily adheres to AIRC guidelines for institutional members, signifying its commitment to engaging in marketing, recruitment and student support practices that are truthful, ethical and transparent, and which meet with the highest levels of professionalism.

The University of Mississippi, in collaboration with EducationUSA seeks to promote the enrollment of qualified full-time international students in its undergraduate and graduate degree programs at its Oxford campus, with the exception of online and distance education programs.

Looking forward to continuing working together,

Greet Provoost
Director, Office of International Programs
June 2014

PART I: ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

1. What Makes the University of Mississippi Unique?

- Top notch education at such an affordable price
- The first public research university in the state of Mississippi (est. 1848)
- Consistent high rankings
- Degrees are globally respected
- Academic prowess and accomplished students
- Internationally and nationally renowned faculty
- Beautiful and safe campus
- Focus on leadership and service
- Engaged student body
- Southern hospitality
- Coolest college town
- Proud traditions and heritage
- Culturally rich environment
- Tailgating in the Grove
- Affectionately known as “Ole Miss”
- Inspired recent Hollywood movies such as The Blind Side and The Help

2. The University of Mississippi’s reputation

- HIGH RANKINGS
 - The Public Accounting Report gives Top 10 ranking to the University’s undergraduate, master’s and doctoral Accountancy programs. The undergraduate and master’s program are both ranked No. 9 nationally, and the doctoral program comes in at No. 8. Both the master’s and doctoral programs lead the Southeastern Conference (SEC) in the rankings, with the undergraduate program No. 2 in the SEC.
 - Forbes and The Fiske Guide to Colleges and Universities in the USA rank the University of Mississippi resp. as a Best Buy and as a Top University.

SAFE CAMPUS

- News Site TheDailyBeast.com named the University of Mississippi one of the 10 Safest Campuses in the Nation.
- Education Encyclopedia StateUniversity.com named it The Safest Campus in the South Eastern Conference (SEC).

- COOLEST COLLEGE TOWN

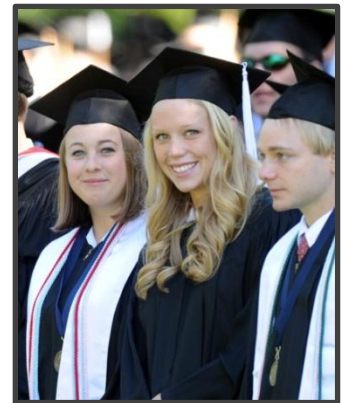

- The University of Mississippi, located in Oxford, Mississippi, is often referred to as a “quintessential American college town”. Smithsonian Magazine named Oxford one of the Top 20 Small Towns in the USA, and Travel and Leisure Magazine named it one of The Coolest College Towns.
- In town public transportation is easily available to get to shopping malls, entertainment and food stores, while the international airport and cultural food markets are located in nearby Memphis.
- The University of Mississippi inspired recent Hollywood movies including The Blind Side (with Sandra Bullock) and The Help (with Viola Davis).
- In 2008, the campus hosted the first presidential debate between John McCain and now President Barack Obama.
- Newsweek recently named the University Most Beautiful Campus.

- STRAIGHTFORWARD FRESHMAN ADMISSION AND SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS
 - The University of Mississippi looks for academically qualified students.
 - Our freshman admission and scholarship requirements are simple and straightforward.
 - SAT is not required of international freshman.
 - Academic Excellence Scholarships are merit-based.

- INSPIRING ACADEMIC / RESEARCH ENVIRONMENT
 - The University of Mississippi offers more than 200 academic programs. Bachelor's degrees are offered at our Schools of Accountancy, Applied Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Engineering, Journalism and New Media, Liberal Arts and Pharmacy.
 - Established in 1848 as the first public university in the state of Mississippi, the University currently enrolls 20,800 students of whom 4% are international (2011).
 - The University of Mississippi educates students for leadership roles. Its highly respected degree is a ticket to success and professional mobility, with graduates currently employed at National Institutes of Health (NIH), Deloitte and Touche, Ernst & Young, Fed Ex, Microsoft, KPMG, and Price Waterhouse Coopers, Goldman Sachs, or completing their graduate studies at prestigious universities, including New York University, Harvard, Princeton, London School of Economics, Cambridge University, Vanderbilt, Michigan State University and University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill.
 - With $163 million in external funding and more than 500 funded research projects (2012), the campus is alive with the buzz of new cutting-edge knowledge.

3. Applying for Admission to a Degree Program

- Undergraduate (Bachelor):
 - Online Application:
<http://international.olemiss.edu/apply/>
 - Application Deadlines:
 - April 1 for admission to Fall term (begins in August)
 - October 1 for admission to Spring term (begins in January)
 - (January 5 for Undergraduate Honors Program!)
 - Recommended Time to Apply:
 - January-March for Fall enrollment
 - July-September for Spring enrollment
 - Is SAT / ACT required of international students?
 - SAT / ACT is NOT required of international students who graduated from secondary school (high school) outside of the USA.
 - Application and Admission Requirements for International Students:
 - See tables below: Freshman and Transfer Undergraduate Requirements
<http://international.olemiss.edu/applicationadmission-requirements/>
 - English Proficiency Requirements of international students who graduated from high schools abroad:
 - See tables below: Freshman and Transfer Undergraduate Requirements as well as <http://international.olemiss.edu/english-proficiency-requirements/>

- The University considers a student's ability to communicate effectively in the English language to be critically important to his/her academic and personal success as well as to safety in laboratories and other academic or research environments.
 - TOEFL IBT: 79 or higher
 - TOEFL PBT: 550 or higher
 - IELTS: 6.00 or higher
 - PTE-A: 53 or higher

- Exempt from the English Language Proficiency Test Requirement for Admission to Undergraduate Study:
 - International applicants who are citizens of, or who have earned a degree of higher education in, one of the following countries:
 - Anguilla
 - Antigua and Barbuda
 - Australia
 - Bahamas
 - Barbados
 - Belize
 - Bermuda
 - British Virgin Islands
 - Canada (except Quebec)
 - Cayman Islands
 - Dominica
 - Grenada
 - Guyana (British)
 - Ireland
 - Jamaica
 - Liberia
 - Malta
 - Montserrat
 - New Zealand

 - International applicants who show evidence of having completed ELS's Level 112-Intensive English for Academic Purposes with a B grade or higher
 - International applicants who show evidence of having completed EC English Language Centres' Upper Intermediate course with 80% or higher.
 - Exemptions for international students educated in the USA are different than those listed above. Contact the Office of International Programs for further details.

- Applicants with English Proficiency Scores Lower than the Stated Minimum
 - Admission with IE90-91: Undergraduate international applicants with English language proficiency scores lower than those above but no less than TOEFL-IBT 69, TOEFL-PBT 523, IELTS 5.50 or PTE-A 47 may be admitted provided they meet all other stated requirements. The University requires that such students enroll in a 3-credit "English for Special Purposes"-course (IE90) + lab during their first term of enrollment at the University and in subsequent terms if necessary until the course is successfully completed.
 - IE 90 – English for Special Purposes (3 credits) + Lab (1 credit)
English for Special Purposes offers international students a hands-on introduction to the practices which constitute academic language use at the University of Mississippi. Through small-projects, readings, and discussions, students will investigate how academic English is actually used in classes and for various assignments. In particular, students will focus on developing skills and strategies that will strengthen their existing expertise in the following areas: locating, reading and critiquing academic articles; producing written work across a variety of genres (reaction papers, discussion questions, definitions, syntheses); and leading and participating in oral activities.

- Conditional Admission is available to undergraduate applicants who do not meet English proficiency test requirements as outlined above, but who meet all other requirements for admission. Such students are only permitted to enroll in Intensive English Program courses. They will be permitted to enroll in undergraduate academic courses after satisfactory English language proficiency for admission has been demonstrated by:
 - Submitting new TOEFL, IELTS or PTE-A test scores which meet the requirements for admission to undergraduate study.
 - Completing the Advanced Plus Course with a B grade or higher at the Intensive English Program at The University of Mississippi. (See <http://iep.olemiss.edu/> for further information.)
 - Note: Admission to IEP requires a separate application process, in addition to the application process for undergraduate (conditional) admission. Conditionally admitted students interested in IEP may contact IEP directly at iep@olemiss.edu or via <http://iep.olemiss.edu/application-form/>
- Affidavit of Financial Support:
<http://international.olemiss.edu/affidavit-of-financial-support/>
- How long will it take to know if I am admitted?
 - Undergraduate applications, if complete, are reviewed for admission-consideration on a rolling basis.
- Graduate (Master and Doctoral)
 - Online Application:
<http://international.olemiss.edu/apply/>
 - Application Deadlines:
 - Standard: April 1 for Fall term (Fall term begins in August) and October 1 for Spring term (Spring term begins in January)
 - Deadlines vary by program Many programs have earlier deadlines than the “standard deadlines.” See:
http://www.olemiss.edu/depts/graduate_school/programsanddeadlines.html
 - Recommended Time to Apply:
 - See Application Deadlines above.
 - Application and Admission Requirements for International Students:
 - <http://international.olemiss.edu/applicationadmission-requirements/>
<http://international.olemiss.edu/graduate-requirements-international/>
 - Requirements also vary by program. See:
http://www.olemiss.edu/depts/graduate_school/programsanddeadlines.html
 - English Proficiency Requirements:
 - The University considers a student’s ability to communicate effectively in the English language to be critically important to his/her academic and personal success as well as to safety in laboratories and other academic or research environments.
 - TOEFL IBT: 79 or higher

- TOEFL PBT: 550 or higher
- IELTS: 6.00 or higher
- PTE-A: 53 or higher
- Exceptions apply. Some graduate programs required higher English proficiency scores.
<http://international.olemiss.edu/english-proficiency-requirements/>
- Affidavit of Financial Support:
<http://international.olemiss.edu/affidavit-of-financial-support/>
- How long will it take to know if I am admitted?
 - This varies by the faculty of the department reviewing the applications. Some departments review applications on a rolling basis, some by committee at monthly or other regular intervals; some departments review all applications received after the application deadline date has effectively passed. .
